DRAMATIC DESIGN ~ EXTRAORDINARY SITING

Elevated above the valley and purposely placed for captivating orientations and one hundred mile views, this charismatic contemporary offers clean lines and the highest standards of modern design. Though up to the minute in stylish details, the interior also exudes a sense of warmth, family and westcoast casual belonging. Thoughtful building techniques have translated into an environment of calming energy and pure design alchemy. Blending house into site required a studied hand, and materials including cedar, stone and stucco were employed to naturally complement the monumental surroundings.
